Is the tap water in the Overberg safe for drinking?

The tap water is filtered and is safe for drinking. In some of the more rural areas the water may be a golden brown colour. This is due to the natural sediments from the earth and this water, although a murky colour, is extremely healthy!