

What time of the year is the best to see the whales?

The whales frequent our shores between May and October.