

When is the best time to visit the Overberg?

There are no “best times” or “worse times”. The summer months are incredible at the coast, and during the winter months the inland areas get a sprinkling of snow. Because the whales visit our shores between May and October, this is a popular time for tourists.